

HamiltonAnderson

Senior Interior Designer (04/2016)

Education / Experience:

- Professional degree in Interior Design, Architecture, or Industrial Design from an accredited school
- 5+ years of commercial interior design experience (post-graduation), preferably with an architectural firm
- Experience in all phases of the design process to include the production of construction documents and construction administration
- Experience in selecting and specifying construction materials, furniture, fixtures and equipment
- A portfolio that showcases your creative talents
- NCIDQ or other professional certification a plus

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Knowledge of building design, materials and maintenance, building codes, and construction methods
- Ability to design and plan projects with limited oversight
- Ability to prepare construction documents and specifications for projects
- Space planning, space development, feature design, and millwork/casework design
- Color/material scheme research, assembly, and application
- Sketching and rendering skills
- Proficiency in Revit, AutoCAD, Photoshop, Sketch Up, and Microsoft Office software
- Familiarity with InDesign and Illustrator a plus
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, ability to communicate with confidence and professionalism
- Creative, self-motivated, focused, detail-oriented, works well in a collaborative environment
- Ability to handle multi-task responsibilities with flexibility

Responsibilities include:

- Lead design on small and large projects, work with junior staff in the production of design development and construction documents
- Develop and execute space plans, elevations, sections, and perspectives
- Prepare graphic materials for presentations
- Finish and furniture recommendations/selection, plans, pricing, and coordination
- Field verification